11 CLIFF STREET.

Dear Dr. Gilman,

I return the draft of your proposed letter which is admirable.

Could you not, confidentially, in writing to these two gentlemen, use the word "Jews" distinctly, so that they would quite understand what you mean. This is my only suggestion and I leave it to your good judgment.

With many thanks for the trouble you have taken,

I am,

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "J. H. Hardy". The signature is written in a cursive style with a prominent, sweeping underline.
