D. C. Gilman Esq.

I am ashamed
of my remissness in the matter of my dues to the Am. Oriental Society. But it will not be convenient for me to send you the money till after the first of Nov.

Yours truly,

R. D. Hitchcock.

Dear Sir,

Enclosed
is the only bill I can lay my hands upon. But I believe there is another. I send you p 10.

Yours truly,
Russell D. Hitchcock

President Gilman:

My dear Sir,

I shall be most happy to dine
with you on Wednesday,
and meet the gentlemen
referred to in your note of yesterday.

Your hospitality is very kindly offered,

and I should not hesitate for a moment to accept it, were it not that I have wished to take my daughter with me,
to give her, what she
much needs, a change of air.

Yours very truly,

Respectfully,
Reswell D. Hitchcock.

President Gilman:

My Dear Sir,
Prof. Murray
recalls the Mount Vernon,
and offers to meet
us at the Station.
The train is due,
I believe, at 2.55.
If my daughter
is not too much fatigued by the journey she will be

Happy to accept your kind invita-
- tion to dinner.

Yours very truly,
Frank D. Hitchcock.
