Dear Dr. Fennell.

I was very sorry
to lose the pleasure
of seeing you and
Mr. Fennell yesterday
but I have been quite some time
I came here - and Saturday Dr. Draper
arrived and to remain in bed. I hope in a day or two I shall be

Just will again -

I send you with

this three reports

which I hope you

to read - and

also see to have

a conversation

with you on the subject of them

from day before the 15th - When I

send with last

With Love & Warmth. —

Yours very sincerely

Elizabeth. Weston

The work might be transferred to Hampton
in this way -

A cooking teacher (white) might be placed here at $80 a month. To teach normal pupils. As these are trained
they might be sent to Lawrenceville Kittrell and similar schools at $30
a month. These

Schools would be glad to give materials
and plant. if the
wages of a teacher
were paid.

The work should be supervised from Hampton. by a grade
visit from the head
teacher in order to keep up by the standard. she should make the
nominations and
sign the certificate.

with the signature
of the head of the school where the instruction is being
The Norfolk classes
in cooking might be kept up as the
plant is there in the school house.
In Norfolk there are three classes each of 15 pupils each. in Amherst twice July
1. the same or more.
The Mothers Meetings
have been crowded

and the sewing classes
average from 40 to 50 pupils each. There were the Mothers Meetings might be carried on perhaps
among the people themselves. But the Cooking classes
could not, and their value is very great. Please make
S. Linnard understand that I wish to assign this work into other hands as soon as possible - and you
may also state the reasons plainly -
