My dear Dr. Gellman,

"What is your pleasure" about announcing the awards? I have replied to all questions here that they have been made but that the announcement is to be made later.

Mr. Ruckstuhl does likewise but I do not know what Mr. Hubbard and Mr. Taft are doing.

I might give the list in five parts to the Evening Post or have it sent out by one of the press associations, or I might wait until you give them all out and will of course act on your instructions. Will you most kindly send me a line on the subject and so clear up the situation? Very truly yours

W. A. Coffin
