The Board of Intramural Athletics is a student run organization of the Physical Education Department, responsible for the organization and promotion of all intramural sports at Johns Hopkins. The BIA presents a diversified program of fourteen sports throughout the academic year. Leagues are established for fraternity, dormitory, and independent competition. Trophies are awarded to the fraternity and dormitory house accumulating the greatest number of points in competition throughout the year. This year, three fraternities, TEP, DU, and ATO, are all in strong contention for the trophy, with TEP, the trophy winner for the last three years, holding a slight edge. In the dormitory competition, Griffen leads the field with Royce, Guildersleeve, Wilson-Wood, Vincent-Willard, and Jennings close behind.

The Johns Hopkins Honor System exists to guarantee high standards of conduct in academics and to limit membership to those persons able and willing to maintain those standards.

An honor system is not something imposed from without, but realized within the community. Such a system establishes a feeling of trust in one's fellow students, and contributes to an atmosphere of freedom in an intellectual endeavor.

The Honor Commission, as representatives of the student community, are elected to deal with persons who have potentially violated the trust between that individual and the community under the Honor System.

THANKS, BUT NO THANKS . . .

- . . . To the Alumni Association for turning upon us deaf ears;
- . . . To Student Activities Director Alan Sapakie for refusing to sign a contract, costing us several hundred dollars;
- . . . To the Student Council, for failing to be of any assistance to us whatsoever, contributing nothing but aggravation;
- . . . To those organizations, like the Women's Center and the Film Committee, who promised contributions but later backed down;
- . . . To John Tillem, Alan Sapakie (again), and Andrew Savitz of the SAC Executive Committee for their appropriation of $0.00 and their indifference to the fate of the HULLABALOO;
- . . . And To President Muller's office for sending us to Jake Hall's office, who sent us to Dean Fitzpatrick's office, who sent us to Alan Sapakie, who gave us nothing but grief.

OUR GRATEFUL ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS . . .

- . . . To those Student Groups who gave financial support, including: BIA, H-Club, WJHU Radio, Black Students' Union, Honor Commission, Milton S. Eisenhower Symposium, Omicron Delta Kappa, Alpha Epsilon Delta, Band, Class of 1975, Class of 1977.
(Those groups not pictured will be included in the supplement).
- . . . To our Goucher friends, BERNIE OGENS and STEPHIE LEVEY, who, with tender and loving care, and with warmth in their hearts, donated time and energy in stuffing
envelopes;
- . . . To Mrs. Jerri LaPointe for putting up with our impatient demands and for lending moral support;
- . . . To Debbie Golden and Jo Meglen for their assistance;
- . . . To the Duplicating office for their prompt service;
- . . . To Carolyn Rutley of the Registrar's office for her consideration;
- . . . To THE NEWSLETTER for its favorable publicity;
- . . . And, perhaps most important of all, to our Sponsors and Patrons, without whose financial support this book would be but a dream of the editors.

(The names of Sponsors and Patrons, whose donations were received after the publication deadline, will appear in the HULLABALOO Supplement.)
