Dear Max,

Last month you and I spoke on the Newsletter's editorial and its attack on Patrice Campbell and the Black Student Union. I told you my personal feelings on the subject. But as the president of an organization which has been unfairly accused, I ask for an apology in your paper as large as its slanderous attack.

The constituency of the BSU is highly upset. They feel that Mrs Campbell made herself extremely clear when she wrote the article that her opinions were her own, not of the BSU. The attack on the BSU because someone submitted something which was not favorable to your eyes leaves all type of space for the Newsletter to be attacked for printing the editorials it does. If you take a close look, when editorials were written, responses were directed at authors not the Newsletter. We look for the same courtesy from your paper. I thank you for your cooperation, and look forward to seeing the next N.L.

Sincerely,

Charles Sydney ~~ET~~
President BSU
