Dear Sir:

Yours of the 15th., inviting me to be present at the exercises on Commemoration Day at the University, is received, but owing to my being so thoroughly occupied at that time with the tax convention, I fear I have neglected to reply. I wish to tender an apology and also to express my deep regret at being unable to be with you, as requested. Hoping that it may be my pleasure to be with you on some other occasion, and with kind regards, I am,

Yours very truly,

Frank Brown
